Tennessee Legends and Settler Lore

What did people do before television? They sat together and listened to stories. Learn some fascinating facts about the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, its human and natural history, while listening to some wonderful Cherokee and Settler legends and folklore. We will also talk about wild edible and medicinal plants that the Cherokee and Settlers used that are still used today. You might even get to try some wild and tasty treats.

Complimentary

The Carpenter's Tribute

Join Jack and Shawna Huesman as they bring back all those great Carpenter's hits like "We've Only Just Begun", "Close to You", "Rainy Days and Mondays" and many more.

Pre-purchase tickets for $5 or purchase tickets at the door.

The Mountains Are Calling

Join a Naturalist Guide from A Walk in the Woods for a guided, 2.5-hour driving tour with a short, easy history walk into the Great Smoky Mountain National Park. Relax in the comfort of a touring van and experience beautiful photographic opportunities in the sea of mountains. Stop to see the Rockefeller Memorial at Newfound Gap (the TN/NC border), plus enjoy stories of the natural and human history of the Park. After photos of the sea of mountains, we'll head back down the mountains and stretch our legs on a short, easy history tour on a paved trail. Learn how the settlers of the area farmed these rugged mountains, find out what the Cherokee used to cure headaches, soak your feet in the clear mountain stream... you may even get to taste a wild mountain treat. (This trail is wheelchair and stroller friendly.) Sign up by 5 p.m. on Thursday. Maximum 10 people.
